Open Ended Lab

Task Details:

In normal algebra, we use the infix notation like *a+b*c.* The corresponding postfix notation is abc+. You have to design an algorithm for implementation of postfix string 123+4- using Data Structures and Algorithms concepts. Your Algorithm should compute the final result and should show the step-by-step calculation of results in output.